President's Message

Hello powerful ladies of AFWA!

I hope everyone had a wonderful and blessed Thanksgiving with friends and family!

Our Public Relations night was a great experience! Jacquelyn Shipe is a dynamic speaker and her special guest, Ukrainian Antonina Volkotrub, opened our eyes to the real events and issues her country is facing. We are truly blessed to be in America. A big thank you to Ann Nurse for booking the musical talents of The 4 Quarters from Oakwood University. They are a tremendously talented group of young men. Those who were not in attendance missed a real treat.

A special thanks to all those who participated in giving to our annual Christmas campaign to benefit the National Children's Advocacy Center of Huntsville. It is never too late to give. Please contact Linda Peebles if you would like to make a donation or make your check payable to AFWA and mail to P.O. Box 22502, Huntsville, AL 35814. In the memo section of your check please indicate NCAC.

Our Christmas dinner will be held on December 15th in lieu of our regular meeting. Jacque Bernard was kind enough to book a room at her church, Grace Presbyterian Church. The church is located at 5555 Wall Triana Hwy, Madison, AL 35758. Our dinner will be catered with a cost of $20 per person. The musical talents of Jacque and Carl will be our entertainment, so you certainly do not want to miss the event. Also, we will be having a cookie swap. If you would like to participate, then please bring cookies enough to share with others (preferably individual snack bags of three to four cookies per bag). Please respond to the Evite as soon as you receive it so we can let the caterer know how many will be attending and you will have a better idea of how many cookies to bake.

Based on the ballots received, the Huntsville chapter voted "yes" on all three amendment changes. If you are unsure what I am referring to, please log on to the national website.

The afwa.org national website has various webinars coming up in December. If you are new to AFWA then I recommend viewing the New Members Coffee series you can find on the national website.

Please remember to check our chapter website, huntsvilleafwa.org, for chapter events and membership news. A link to our chapter store is also located on our chapter website. Thank you for being a member of our team, the Huntsville Chapter of AFWA. Remember, our chapter is only as strong as you, our membership, makes it.

Looking forward to sharing Christmas dinner with you.

Becky

About Us

The Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance (AFWA), originally named the American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA), was organized in 1938 to increase the opportunities for women in all fields of accounting and finance. The first chapter was chartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. Members include partners in national, regional and local CPA firms, financial officers, controllers, academicians, financial analysts and data processing consultants, college students and recent graduates, and women returning to the work force. Many of our members have attained professional certifications such as CPA, CMA, CIA, and CFP. The Huntsville chapter was chartered on December 4, 1982. We hold monthly meetings with programs of technical and educational value.
