President's Message

Greetings powerful women of AFWA!

Congratulations to our scholarship winners. Brenda Hernandez, Sarah Smith, Kadeidra Bowie and LeAnne Goode. All applicants submitted worthy credentials and glowing recommendations which made it hard for the committee to choose our winners. We hope to see all four of these bright young ladies become student members and eventually active members of our chapter.

This year is winding down fast as we are quickly approaching our fiscal year end. We only have two more meetings left before we begin a new year.

Please join us this month at the Women's Business Center of North Alabama on Sparkman Drive, Tuesday, May 17th for a luncheon with Dr. Charles Hickman from the Business department of the University of Alabama Huntsville. Registration will begin at 11:15 a.m. and the meeting will conclude on or before 1 p.m.

Opportunities are still available if you are interested in serving on the chapter's board or becoming a committee member. Please see a list of contacts included in this newsletter.

Please remember to check our chapter website, huntsvilleafwa.org, for chapter events and membership news. A link to our chapter store is also located on our chapter website. Thank you for being a member of our team, the Huntsville Chapter of AFWA. Remember, our chapter is only as strong as you, our membership, makes it.

Becky

About Us

The Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance (AFWA), originally named the American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA), was organized in 1938 to increase the opportunities for women in all fields of accounting and finance. The first chapter was chartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. Members include partners in national, regional and local CPA firms, financial officers, controllers, academicians, financial analysts and data processing consultants, college students and recent graduates, and women returning to the work force. Many of our members have attained professional certifications such as CPA, CMA, CIA, and CFP. The Huntsville chapter was chartered on December 4, 1982. We hold monthly meetings with programs of technical and educational value.
